7. ADMISSION APPLICATION FORM

The admission application form must be completed exclusively online and can be found at (<https://www.collegiofonda.it/ammissione/>). Applications must be submitted by 12:00 a.m. midnight , on July 17th, 2022.

In the admission application form, applicants must indicate the degree programme they have chosen at the University of Trieste.

The following documents must be attached to the application form:

- a photocopy of both sides of the applicant's identification document;
- an up to date 2022 CV in the Europass format;
- a transcript of academic records listing all exams taken during the applicant's Bachelor's Degree programme, including credits and grades, as well as a copy of the Bachelor's Degree, if completed at the time of applying for admission;
- a reference letter or letter of presentation on behalf of the applicant's supervising professor for their Bachelor's Degree thesis, or a professor who teaches in the applicant's Bachelor's Degree programme;
- any additional letters of presentation;
- any further qualifications or certificates which are deemed important for the selection process.

*Letters of presentation can be attached to the applicant's online application form or sent directly to the President of the College (vanni.lughi@collegiofonda.it) within July 17th, 2022.

8. ADMISSION EXAM

The selection will be based on the evaluation of applicants' academic career and an interview in order to determine applicants' knowledge of the subjects inherent to the chosen course of studies, their motivation for choosing the specific course of studies, their predisposition to interdisciplinarity and life at the College and their knowledge of foreign languages. The Selection Committees will be nominated by the President of the College, and the members will be chosen among professors, university researchers and qualified experts.

The admission interviews will be held between the 25th and the 29th of July 2022. The procedure, date, and time of the interviews will be published on the website of the College (<http://collegiofonda.it>) within July 22nd, 2022.

The applicants are required to exhibit a valid identification document at the interview. Foreign applicants may, upon request, have their exams conducted in English.

9. FORMULATION OF THE FINAL RANKING AND NOMINATION OF SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS

The Selection Committees, taking into consideration the exams passed and the average grade in the Bachelor's Degree programme, the CV, the letters of presentation and, if available, the final grade received upon completion of the Bachelor's Degree, and any additional qualifications or certificates which were presented, will assign a grade out of 100. Applicants who receive a grade of not less than 70/100 will be admitted to take the oral exam. Applicants will have passed the oral exam if they attain a grade of not less than 70/100. The final grade obtained by the applicant will be the average of the results obtained in the two exams. Applicants who attain an average of at least 70/100 in both of the exams will be deemed eligible.

The Committees, based on the grades that the eligible applicants have obtained, will formulate three separate rankings, in order of merit, pertaining to the three categories of available places outlined in articles 3.1, 3.2 and 3.3 of the present document. In the case of applicants with equal ranking, precedence will be determined in the following order:

1. the applicant that obtained the best result in the oral exam;
2. the applicant that obtained the highest average grade during their Bachelor's Degree programme;
3. the youngest applicant.

In accordance with the restrictions mentioned in article 3, the available places will be assigned to the eligible applicants as follows:

5 (five) places for students in the Physics inter-university Master's Degree programme (art. 3.1): places will be assigned according to the ranking, in accordance with the restrictions outlined in article 3.1 of the Call for Applications, and on the choices indicated by the applicants in their application for admission.

5 (five) places for students in the Master's Degree programme in Data Science and Scientific Computing, Geophysics and Geodata, Geoscience, Mathematics (art. 3.2): places will be assigned to the first eligible applicants according to the ranking.

1 (one) place for students the 4th year of single-cycle Master's Degree programme in Law, or for students of the 3rd year of the above mentioned Degree programme, provided they are graduates (or undergraduates, cf. Art. 6) in Interlinguistic Communication Applied to Legal Professions (art. 3.3): the place will be assigned to the first eligible applicant according to the ranking.

The rankings, the list of successful applicants and any updates will be published on the Collegio "Luciano Fonda" website (<http://www.collegiofonda.it>). The successful applicants will be informed of the results by e-mail.

10. ADMISSION OF SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS

Within September 1st, 2022 the successful applicants must:

- submit their acceptance of the offered place;

Within October 31st, 2022 the successful applicants must

- undersign the General Regulations, i.e. the contract with the College, and the Learning Agreement;
- self-certify that enrollment in the chosen course of studies at the University of Trieste has been completed.

Students are welcome to arrive at the College starting from October 1st, 2022, under the condition that within that date they have completed their Bachelor's Degree, finalized the enrollment procedures for the Master's or the single-cycle Master's Degree programme and completed the above mentioned College admission procedures.

Should one or more successful applicants choose to decline the offer of a place, or resign for whatever reason, the places made available within November 15th, 2022 will be re-assigned to the next eligible applicant(s) in the ranking.

11. ACCEPTANCE OF THE REGULATIONS AND LEGISLATION REGARDING SELF-CERTIFICATION MADE PURSUANT TO ITALIAN LAW, DPR 445/2000

The participation in the Call for Applications entails the complete acceptance of all of the provisions outlined in the present document. If deemed necessary, the Collegio may request the applicant to supply additional documentation.

The College reserves the right to verify the accuracy of the information declared in the applicant's self-certification. If, in fact, the information declared by the applicant is found to be false or false documents were exhibited containing information which does not comply with the truth, the applicant will be excluded from the selection process, or, the College will withdraw any offer of admission.

12. COLLECTION AND USE OF PERSONAL DATA (Italian Legislative Decree D.LGS 30.06.2003 N. 196; GDPR EU REGULATION 2016/679)

The processing of the data contained in the present Call for Applications is carried out in compliance with Personal Data Protection Laws, and in particular, those indicated in the Italian Legislative Decree, D.Lgs. 196/03 and relative amendments, as well as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), EU Regulation n. 2016/679.

All of the requested data, which may also be processed electronically, is used to finalize the selection process and subsequent admission to Collegio Fonda on behalf of the successful applicants. Providing the requested data is not mandatory, however, failure to indicate or partially indicating said data, will exclude the applicant from the selection process. Data may be disclosed to relevant entities, organizations, law enforcement agencies and administrative offices in order to conduct requisite checks. The Data Controller is Collegio Universitario "Luciano Fonda" and the data supervisor is its legal representative, in the person of the President pro tempore.
