4. SCHOLARSHIPS AND SOLIDARITY CONTRIBUTIONS

The annual fee for residential and educational services at Collegio Luciano Fonda is €7,500 per year for either the biennium 2026/27–2027/28 or the triennium 2026/27–2028/29.

However, all candidates chosen for the 2026/27 academic year will receive either a full or partial fee reduction through scholarships (whether direct or indirect) and specific funding programs, which are awarded based on income and merit criteria.

Reductions Based on ISEE

The first level of reduction is based on the student's family economic situation. The amount each student must pay, also called the solidarity contribution, will be determined by the university's ISEE (Equivalent Economic Situation Indicator), which must be submitted each year by September 30.

The monthly fee will be calculated according to Table 1, updated annually, as shown below:

ISEE Brackets	Monthly Cost	Band
< 28.339,88€	0,00 €	A
> 28.339,88€ ≤ 35.000€	100,00 €	B
> 35.000,01 € ≤ 40.000€	150,00 €	C
> 40.000,01 € ≤ 45.000€	200,00 €	D
> 45.000,01 € ≤ 50.000€	250,00 €	E
> 50.000,01 € ≤ 55.000€	300,00 €	F
> 55.000,01 € ≤ 60.000€	350,00 €	G
> 60.000,01 € ≤ 65.000€	400,00 €	H
> 66.000,01 € ≤ 70.000€	450,00 €	I
> 70.001€	500,00 €	L

Merit-Based Scholarships

The College also reserves the right to award additional merit-based scholarships that reduce the required contribution. These scholarships will be granted to students who stand out through active participation in college life and a demonstrated dedication to the educational and community activities supported by the College.

International Students

Students residing abroad, as well as students residing in Italy whose household resides abroad, must submit the ISEE parificato (equivalent ISEE).

To obtain the Equivalent University ISEE, please refer to the following web page of the University of Trieste, www.units.it, and the ARDiS website.

*Call for applications 2026/27 -
Master's Degree students and 3rd/4th year students of
Single-Cycle Master's Degree
Programs*

Until the ISEE parificato is issued, international students will be required to pay a fixed monthly contribution, corresponding to Band B of Table 1.

Starting the month after submitting the ISEE to the College Administration, the monthly fee will be recalculated based on the ISEE value, according to the provisions of Table 1.

The contribution is regarded as a monthly fee, calculated over twelve months, and must be paid in 12 installments, even if the accommodation begins after October 1, 2026. Any absences or non-use of services do not qualify the student for any discount.

Admission to the college is compatible with regional scholarships for capable and deserving students who lack financial means.

INPS scholarships, however, are not compatible with Collegio Fonda's scholarships and funding programs aimed at reducing student costs. Therefore, they are calculated based on the full annual fee of $7,500 without reductions.

Programs*

The selection will be based on evaluating qualifications and conducting an interview to assess the candidates' preparation in subjects related to the chosen Master's Degree program, that must be relevant to the Bachelor's degree obtained, or to the course of study in which they are enrolled. 9. FORMULATION OF THE FINAL RANKING AND NOMINATION OF SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS

The Committees will assign candidates a score out of 100 by considering the exams taken during the Bachelor's degree or in the first three years of the attended degree program, the corresponding weighted average grade, the curriculum, letters of recommendation, the possible final degree grade, and any other qualifications submitted (including prior affiliation with Collegio Fonda). Based on the scores achieved by the eligible candidates, the Committee will create a general ranking and four specific rankings, one for each of the categories 3.1–3.4 mentioned in Article 3. If there is a tie, priority will be given in the following order:
